

Introduction to Gin

The introduction to Gin is a brief but fun history of gin and tasting. Covering the origins of the spirit and the different styles there are, all the way through the production process and the final product. You will have your senses teased with botanicals and get to make your own infusion.

Tasting some house gin and finishing with a delicious Gin and tonic of your choosing.

£26.00 pp

Scottish Gin Tasting

After covering the basics of the spirit this bespoke tasting is aimed at the real Gin enthusiast. Scotland's Gin market has been on the rise and now boast a massive, versatile and unique range. Here you will try a selection of Gin, G&T's, make your own infusion to take away with you and understand the importance of the correct garnish according to the type of Gin being served.

£30.00 pp

Martini Masterclass

Always 'stirred' never shaken! This is where you gain your Licence to Thrill! Here we explore the Perfect Martini and The Gibson. Classic drinks of the roaring twenties that still delight all over the world today. We shall sample the difference between Wet, Dry, Dirty along with the importance of vermouth and give you the chance to learn how to impress your friends every time you make this drink.

£40.00 pp