

Introduction to Gin

The introduction to Gin is a brief but fun history of gin and tasting. Covering the origins of the spirit and the different styles there are, all the way through the production process and the final product. You will have your senses teased with botanicals, taste three perfect pours from across the world (including Scotland of course!) and finish with a G&T of your choice.

£26.00 pp

Scottish Gin Tasting

After covering the basics of the spirit this bespoke tasting is aimed at the real Gin enthusiast. Scotland's Gin market has been on the rise and now boast a massive, versatile and unique range. Here you will try a selection of Gin, G&T's and understand the importance of the correct garnish according to the type of Gin being served. Finish with your favourite G&T from the tasting!

£30.00 pp

Martini Masterclass

Always 'stirred' never shaken! This is where you give you Licence to Thrill! We explore the Perfect Martini and The Gibson. Classic drinks of the roaring twenties that still delight all over the world today. We shall sample the difference between Wet, Dry, Dirty along with the importance of vermouth and give you the chance to learn how to impress your friends every time you make this drink.

£40.00 pp