

Introduction to Whisky

An introduction to the art of tasting whisky. We will talk about the production and maturation to gain an understanding of how the whisky ends up in our glasses. We highlight the 5 regional styles of Scotland. Then we will move on to taste 3 very different single malts, each from a different whisky producing region.

Single Malts and Cheese

It is commonly known that wine can be matched with many foods to enhance the flavour profiles and we, at the Dunstane houses, believe the same applies for good whisky! Single malt whiskys and their hugely complex characters, can be paired with many different foods.

In this tasting you will sample 3 single malt whiskys each paired with a different Scottish cheese.

Whisky Regions of Scotland

Journey around Scotland without leaving the comfort of The Ba' Bar. We discuss the 5 whisky regions of Scotland and their regional styles and variances. You will taste a single malt whisky from each of the 5 regions, selected by our resident whisky specialist; as we travel around learning about the regions, the distilleries and the whisky they produce.

Highland Park Premium Select Whisky Tasting – Exclusive to the Dunstane Houses

One of Scotland's most northerly islands, Orkney, is steeped in a rich history dating back to the Norse era with legends of sea monsters and pagan gods. Now this windswept but breathtakingly beautiful island is home to one of the most awarded Single Malt Scotch Whiskies in the world - Highland Park.

This experience, in association with Highland Park, is exclusive to The Dunstane Houses. We will take you on one of the most luxurious tasting experience available in the Capital of Scotland. You will taste 3 ultra- premium malts, with a combined average age exceeding 73 years spent ageing in Oak Casks. The liquid presented during this experience epitomises the generations of Orcadian Master craftsmen's work going into fashioning some of the best Single Malt Whisky in the World.
